MERCER LAW REVIEW

MERCER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

GENERAL INFORMATION. Mercer Law Review is edited and published by students of the Mercer University School of Law. Mercer Law Review was founded in 1949. It is the oldest continually published law review in Georgia.

ISSUES. Mercer Law Review (ISSN 0025-987X) is published four times a year: Annual Survey of Georgia Law (Fall), Articles (Winter), Lead Articles (Spring), and Annual Eleventh Circuit Survey (Summer). The issues appear, respectively, in January, March, May, and July. Copies are available at $15.00 for survey volumes and $15.00 for Leads and Articles volumes.

INDICES. Each issue of the Mercer Law Review contains a table of cases. A full index of each volume (all four issues) is published in the Annual Eleventh Circuit Survey. A cumulative index for volumes I through LVI has been published. Copies are available at a cost of $30.00 each.

SUBSCRIPTIONS. Annual subscriptions are available to all four issues ($40.00), to the Annual Survey of Georgia Law ($15.00), to the Annual Eleventh Circuit Survey ($15.00), and to both Survey issues ($30.00). Subscriptions are payable in advance and are renewed automatically unless notice to the contrary is received by August 1st. Single copies of the Lead and Articles issues are available at $15.00 each. Subscriptions to only the Lead and Articles issues are not available. Single copies of the Survey issues are available at $15.00 each; orders must be clearly marked "Single Copy." Georgia residents should add the appropriate state, local, and special district taxes. All domestic subscriptions are sent via periodicals mail. Foreign subscriptions are sent via surface mail. Subscribe online at <http://www.law.mercer.edu/academics/lawreview/subscribe.cfm>

CARL VINSON MEMORIAL LECTURE. The annual Carl Vinson Memorial Lecture Series was created in 1982 in honor and memory of the Honorable Carl Vinson, a distinguished alumnus of the Mercer Law School who served his country for fifty years as a member of Congress. The purpose of the Lecture Series is to provide lectures of the very highest quality on legal and law-related subjects for the students and faculty of the law school, alumni and friends of the School of Law and Mercer University, and the general public. The Vinson Lectures are periodically published in Mercer Law Review.

MERCER LAW REVIEW ASSOCIATION. All alumni of Mercer Law Review are members of the Mercer Law Review Association. Friends of Mercer Law Review may become adjunct members of the Mercer Law Review Association by application.

DISCLAIMER OF OPINION. Opinions expressed in any part of MERCER LAW REVIEW are those of the individual contributors and are not presented as the views of Mercer Law Review, Mercer University School of Law, or Mercer University.

MERCER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

GENERAL INFORMATION. Mercer University School of Law is located in Macon, Georgia, about 80 miles south of Atlanta. As you think about what kind of law school is the best fit for you, consider Mercer Law School has been graduating practice ready lawyers who uphold the highest ideas of the legal profession since 1873. With its distinctive Woodruff Curriculum and a total student body of roughly 400, Mercer Law School provides an educational environment that fosters in-depth learning, a candid and lively exchange of views, and a genuine sense of community and collegiality.

DEGREES AWARDED. The study of law at Mercer University School of Law consists of a three-year program directed toward the J.D. degree. A joint J.D.-M.B.A. program is offered in conjunction with Mercer's Stetson School of Business and Economics. In addition, the law school offers a Business Certificate Program and a Legal Writing Certificate Program. The Masters in Comparative Jurisprudence (MCJ) degree in International Business and Trade Law offered at Mercer University School of Law is a distinctive one-year program designed to give foreign lawyers both academic and practical training with an emphasis on international business and trade law. Please see our website for more details at www.law.mercer.edu.

ADMISSIONS. As a top provider of legal education, Mercer Law School is selective in admissions. Our admissions process aims to select from the applicant pool students who will contribute to our academic community during their three years of legal education and, ultimately, to society and the legal profession. Persons interested in applying for admission to the Mercer University School of Law may access information at www.law.mercer.edu or email the Admissions Office at admissions@law.mercer.edu.

LAW LIBRARY. The Furman Smith Law Library has a staff of thirteen, including six professional librarians. The librarians provide extensive instruction in both print and electronic research as part of the curriculum. The library's collection includes over 350,000 volumes in books and microforms as well as a wide array of legal and non-legal electronic resources. Carrels, tables, soft seating, "smart" study rooms and a technology lounge are available to law students. Throughout the library and law school, students have wireless access to the library and law school network via their personal laptops. The library's web site features an extensive collection of annotated links to Georgia and federal legal research materials. For more information about the library visit www.law.mercer.edu/library.

CAREER SERVICES OFFICE. Employers who are interested in interviewing students and graduates of the Mercer University School of Law are invited to contact the Career Services Office. Upon request, the Career Services Office will be happy to forward resumes, arrange on-campus interviews, or assist employers in any other way. Telephone (478) 301-2615. FAX (478) 301-2287. Employers may also contact the Career Services Office via email at careerservices@law.mercer.edu.
